PENNY LUNCH FUND MAKES A BIG JUMP Strand Theatre Tickets ... T. R..... tive Association

By Sophie Irene Loeb. Since The Evening World campaign for penny lunches began considerable research work has been made in the public schools by the earnest work of teachers and principals, in order to ascertain the many necessitous children, and the plea is insistent for more lunch service. Already six schools have been equipped through The Evening World contribution, and thousands of necessitous children will be reached accordingly. Yet, according to the apeals that come in from all sides, from schools in Brooklyn, Harlem and Manhattan, there is still great need to fill. The public is earnestly equested to contribute to this worthy cause, so that service may be ex-

A report comes to-day from Dr.

B. Josephine Baker, of the Depart-ment of Health and the Director of the Bureau of Child Hygiene, under whose supervision school-shildren are examined. She shows the startling statistic that in one school over 20 per cent. of the children are new suffering from mainutrition. Dr. Baker states:
"At the request of Miss Kerr, our Superintendent of Nurses, I had a special survey made of Public Bohool

"Miss Kerr is of the opinion that there are a large number of cases of mainutrition at this school and that a mainutrition at this school and that a school lunch is urgently needed.

"Public School No. 83 has a registration of appreximately 8,800. A seroful physical examination of each pupil shows that there are at least 650 shildren suffering from mainutrition.

"In my opinion a school lunch would help to selve this problem. I understand that the principal, Mr. McGuire, is in favor of this proposition."

every bit of food is properly exam-ined and found to be thoroughly wholesome and chosen particularly for its nutritious value, there is no reason why every parent should not be glad to have his child partake of it right in the school room. Certainly it ought to meet the second.

it right in the school room. Certainly it ought to meet the cases of many people who cannot give the attention the child's noonday meal ought to have.

The Brooklyn School Lunch Association strongly urges The Evening World's support in the installation of service in the most necessitous schools as speedily as possible.

Miss Grace Strachan, Chairman of the Teachers' and Principals' Relief Committee, who has charge of reaching necessitous children through The Evening World Lunch Fund, highly commends the work already accomcommends the work already accom-plished, and urges the further equip-ment of more schools, especially in the most congested neighborhoods. Mrs. H. E. Cox. President of the above essociation, who has charge of the Brooklyn Lunch Service, describes the immediate needs in the following letter to The Evening World:

"Inclosed you will please find my personal check for $5 in appreciation of the generous offer of The Evening World to Brooklyn.

"The schools that we would like to open as soon as possible are as follows:

"P. S. No. 22, Java Street near Manhattan Avenue; Principal, Miss Laura Black; District Superintendent, James J. McCabe (District 34). This school is partly squipped and only awaits a small sum for cost of needed alterations will be started in these schools as soon as authorized by you. (District 33). The Williamsburgh Guild is interested in this school and it is one of the largest in the Browns-
